The Rifles

Carcano Carbine 1891 6.5x52mm

Carcano is the frequently used name for a series of Italian bolt-action military rifles and carbines. Introduced in 1891, this rifle was chambered for the rimless 6.5×52mm Mannlicher cartridge. It was developed at the Turin Army Arsenal in 1890 and called the M91. It was produced from 1892 to 1945. The M91 was used in both rifle and carbine form by most Italian troops during the First World War and by Italian and some German forces during the Second World War. The rifle was also used during the Winter War by Finland, and again by regular and irregular forces in Syria, Libya, Tunisia, and Algeria during various postwar conflicts in those countries. A Carcano was used in the 1963 assassination of John F. Kennedy.

Carl Gustafs 1916 M96 6.5x55

This is an all original Swedish Mauser. It was produced in 1916 and bears the famous "Carl Gustafs Stads Gevarsfaktori" ("Rifle Factory of Carl Gustaf's town") crest. The Swedish M96 rifle, which civilians generally call the Swedish Mauser Model 1896 or just the "Swedish Mauser," was introduced two years after the famous 6.5x55 cartridge. The Model 1896 rifle remained the primary Swedish service rifle until 1938.
